Local drama groups get good reviews

Recent shows we have costumed include Oklahoma, The Birthday Party, The Sound of Music, Romeo and Juliet, Oklahoma and Ragtime, with several groups receiving excellent reviews in the local press.

Bugsy Malone

Forever popular, Bugsy was performed last month at the Hazeley school and The Secret Cinema put on a five week showing of Bugsy Malone with many patrons dressing up for their visit to see the show. Our range of flapper dresses, boas, gangster suits and accessories made everyone feel the part. A selection of our costumes for Bugsy can be seen on our website and a flyer is available to download.

Wizard of Oz - West End

One of our associates has made it onto the west end stage as part of the new cast of the Wizard of Oz, alongside Russell Grant.

We would like to wish the cast every success with their Greek entry in the West End Eurovision competition and we are delighted to have provided costumes for this show in aid of The Make a Difference Trust.

See How They Run is a classic English comedy in three acts written by Phillip King.

The play is set in the 1940's in the living room of the vicarage at the fictitious village of Merton-cum-Middlewick in Oxfordshire.

Don't miss the chance to see this hilarious and classic English farce, performed by the Longueville Little Theatre Company at the Chrysalis Theatre, Milton Keynes on 16th – 19th May 2012.

Many thanks to Weston-Super-Mare Operatic Society for sending us some fabulous shots of our costumes in

Did anyone spot Sir Winston Churchill alive and well in Great Brickhill? (Picture courtesy of not too shabby)

Please send us pictures and posters of your shows and our costumes in action to put on our notice board, website and newsletters, we are always happy to offer some extra publicity
